When I was just a little child, no higher than your knee, My mother bought a box of crayons just for me I picked them up, and I opened them up; I looked way down inside And the colors, they reminded me of Jesus when He died.

(Chorus)

Red is the color of the blood that He shed. Brown is for the crown that they placed upon His head. Blue is for royalty, within Him it did dwell. And yellow is for the Christian who's afraid who tell.

I colored and I colored 'til the crayons were all gone; And though I am much older now, the memory lingers on. And when I see a little child with crayon box in hand, I tell him what they mean to me and hope he'll understand.

(Chorus)

Afraid to tell of the Saviour who died on Calvary, Who died for lonely sinners just like you and me. And someday He is coming back to be our King, And the colors in the crayon box you will see.

(Chorus)
